1. Who can see what there is to be seen, light from light? And what does that mean and wherefore you/who will tell them? Incarcerating their light no more but letting it/me shine forth, birthing forth the unimaginable, the kingdom forthwith'd, the kingdom within, without, round about, and throughout. I love you.

2. Birthing it/me you are and birthing-mothers not, fathers. I love you. Raising fathers/fatherhood to new levels/realms for/in me alone, me alone no longer; many membered ones now many members altogether one is, are, and now ingesteth my words for thee all, individually and singularly and plurally not; one are. I love you.

3. Thou hast seen the sun shine not like you're about to. I love you.
Shine. Shine. Shine.
Shine, shine; shining.
Shining before/throughout the waves/particles of only me, incarcerated not/no longer.
Thou art freed, freedmen, women, and freed, free others now and never Isaiah 61 not again. Thou art Isaiah 61.

4. Thou art my word, my freedom, my freeing-er. Thank you er of only me. Smile and laugh and enjoy me more and more and exciteth me I am? I am, so. Oh so. Thank you. Amen.

5. Thou hast conceived not, in your heart, not; thou hast become all and conceived that which I have conceived and conceiveth all of me? Yea and amen, all of me that in you is and Ted, that is all, all: that is all. I love you. Amen.

6. See my farmers not, antiquarians not; but those who in me form and fashion now that which I am and always have been, not as thought but in reality real, fashion and form of only me, in which no variableness or turning exists of me-not, but only me.

7. I am light, life, and I lift you now, not later. I have given my all. You said yes/died to all. I love you. Fruit remains, blossoms, comes forth flowery in the grave not, but from it forthwith'd and never not-bearing fruit again, for fruit you are/remaineth and remaineth my blessings forever'd. I love you. Grace. Amen.
